STOCKHOLM, July 16—The Soviet Ambassador to Sweden, Nikolai D. Belokhovstikov, officially denied today that employees of the Soviet Embassy had spied in Sweden.

The Ambassador saw the Foreign Minister, Torsten Nilsson, in his office and rejected a Swedish protest.

Sweden protested to the Soviet Government shortly after a Swedish Air Force colonel, Stig Wennerstrom, was arrested on June 20 on charges of espionage for the Soviet Union.

Two members of the Soviet Embassy here were asked to leave the country.
